Other Capital District News...

Skidmore

This semester, the fellowship has been engaged in ongoing dialog with a group on campus called The Sex Forum. They've built trust, and had opportunity to talk about God's design for sex, and His desire for intimacy.

Union

Two freshmen have been leading two Bible/book studies with 7 non-Christian students. Non-Christians currently make up more than one-third of Union's fellowship.

RPI

As a result of his time at Urbana, a fraternity brother in the chapter has begun an outreach to the Greek system on campus. He already has 13 other students involved, and they hope to charter their own chapter in the next year.

God's Not Done Yet!

The women at Russell Sage were busy counting students, considering the work that God had done in their midst throughout the year. There are 26 students involved in their chapter now—the most there have ever been. The fellowship is also more ethnically and racially diverse now than ever before. And they've seen 3 people make a first-time decision to follow Jesus, all in the course of a few months! There is much to be celebrated! Yet, when it came time for them to report this last number, they wanted to stop, and submit the report at a later date. There are still several weeks left in the semester, and these students at Russell Sage are convinced that God will bring at least 2 more people to Himself before the end of the school year!

I want to have the faith that these young women have. It's the kind of faith that celebrates what God has done, and yet longs for more. It's the kind of faith that isn't satisfied knowing that there are people who know nothing of the deep love that their heavenly Father has for them. It's the kind of faith that says, "God's not done yet."

Let's join together in thanking God for what He has done, with the great expectation that there's more to come! Let's join with these women at Russell Sage in begging our Father to bring more sisters into the family this semester! And let's commit ourselves to allowing God to work in and through us until His work is done!

Note: I wrote this letter last week. Very early Monday morning, I received an email from Niki (our staff at Sage) that we have another new sister in Christ! Praise our God, who's still not done!
